The “Next Girl” at The Island – award-winning Carly Pearce to bring her Hummingbird World Tour to Treasure Island Resort & Casino on March 20, 2025

The announce follows Pearce’s new album “Hummingbird,” released to critical and commercial acclaim

WELCH, Minn. (August 5, 2024) — Following the release of her latest album, “Hummingbird,” Carly Pearce announced earlier today that her Hummingbird World Tour is stopping at Treasure Island Resort & Casino on Thursday, March 20, 2025 in Treasure Island’s Island Event Center.

Tickets will go on sale to the public on Friday, August 9 at 10am CST and will be available for purchase at Tlcasino.com. Reserved seating will be available for $69, $54 and $39.

After growing up performing with bluegrass groups, Pearce first gained traction with “Every Little Thing” in 2017, landing at No. 1 on the Billboard country chart and helping her land a major label contract. Since then, Pearce’s 3x PLATINUM-certified “I Hope You’re Happy Now” with Lee Brice won both the 2020 CMA Awards Musical Event and 2021 ACM Awards Music Event, plus ACM Single of the Year. The song also took home the 2022 CMA Musical Event of the Year and won a GRAMMY® Award for Best Country Duo/Group Performance, marking Pearce’s first and making history as the first female pairing to win in the category.

Pearce now steps into the next chapter of her musical career with the praised release of her latest Top-20-and-rising single “we don’t fight anymore” (featuring Chris Stapleton), which earned her second GRAMMY® nomination for Best Country Duo/Group Performance. Pearce went on to release “country music made me do it,” to critical acclaim, performing the song at the first annual People’s Choice Country Awards and on NBC’s “The Tonight Show” Starring Jimmy Fallon.

Carly Pearce joins TLC (September 1), Theory of a Deadman (October 25), Aaron Lewis (December 14) and more to be announced on Treasure Island’s 2024-25 Island Event Center lineup.
